Introduction

The Saudi Center for Commercial Arbitration (“SCCA”), located in Riyadh, was established by the Cabinet decree number 257 dated 14/6/1435 A.H. - 15/03/2014 A.D. to administer arbitration procedures in civil and commercial disputes where parties agree to refer their disputes to SCCA arbitration or mediation.

The SCCA is governed by an independent Board of Directors composed of nationally respected leaders with diverse backgrounds and experience in business, law and arbitration. All Board members must come from the private sector, and may not hold a government position.

This book introduces the procedural rules that govern the dispute resolution framework at the SCCA, including Arbitration Rules, Mediation Rules, Costs and Fees Appendices and Model Clauses that parties may incorporate into their contracts and agreements.

Arbitration Rules

The SCCA developed its Arbitration Rules through a comprehensive and inclusive process, including:

1. The SCCA Board of Directors decided to adopt the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules as a basis for the SCCA Arbitration Rules due to the widespread success and acceptance among experts, practitioners and courts of the UNCITRAL Rules;
2. A joint drafting team (the “Team”) was formed with the SCCA and consultants from AAA-ICDR to draft the SCCA Arbitration Rules;
3. The Team studied a number of regional and international arbitration centers’ rules and procedures, along with the Saudi

Introduction

Arbitration Law and the local practices. The Team then defined the main points and features of institutional arbitration to be incorporated in the SCCA Arbitration Rules. The first draft of the SCCA Arbitration Rules provided a systematic and clear framework governing the arbitral proceeding from filing until the issuance of an enforceable arbitral award;

4. The SCCA organized several workshops to discuss its Arbitration Rules draft with lawyers and practitioners, as well as two workshops with the Board of Directors;
5. The Team modified the SCCA Arbitration Rules draft in the light of the discussions that took place during the workshops. The SCCA Board of Directors then approved the Arbitration Rules.

Expedited Procedure Appendix

The Expedited Procedure Appendix, in force as of October 15, 2018 A.D. – Safar 6, 1440 A.H. provides parties with a fast track, simplified and reduced cost procedure. The Expedited Procedure shall apply in any case where the aggregate amount in dispute does not exceed 4,000,000 SAR exclusive of costs of arbitration if the arbitration agreement was concluded after October 15, 2018 A.D. However, and for the sake of the utmost flexibility, parties may agree to opt out the Expedited Procedures or to opt in even with higher value cases.

The Expedited Procedure provides parties with comprehensive filing, expedited appointment process, the option of deciding the case without a hearing based solely on parties' submissions and abbreviated time limits.

Emergency Arbitrator Appendix

The SCCA Rules allow for the party seeking emergency relief that cannot await the constitution of the arbitral tribunal to apply for the appointment of an Emergency Arbitrator to consider his request. The Emergency Arbitrator appendix in force as of October 15, 2018 A.D. – Safar 6, 1440 A.H. comprehensively outlines the Emergency Arbitrator procedure, from case filing through to the award or decision on the emergency measure request with clear and efficient timelines.

Mediation Rules

The SCCA Mediation Rules were developed as follows:

1. The SCCA Board of Directors decided to adopt the AAA-ICDR Mediation Rules as a basis for the SCCA Mediation Rules due to their flexibility, ease of implementation and international success.
2. A joint drafting team (the “Team”) was formed with the SCCA and consultants from AAA-ICDR to draft the SCCA Mediation Rules;
3. The Team prepared the first draft of the SCCA Mediation Rules taking into account some modifications to articles and terminologies to be more suitable for the local and international market. Thus, creating a systematic, flexible and cost-effective framework. Mediation under the SCCA Mediation Rules is a flexible and party-focused process aimed at facilitating and achieving a negotiated settlement through a neutral third party, without the authority to impose a binding settlement;

4. The SCCA organized several workshops to discuss its Mediation Rules draft with lawyers as well as two workshops with the Board of Directors;
5. The Team modified the SCCA Mediation Rules draft in the light of the discussion and feedback received during the workshops. The SCCA Board of Directors then approved the SCCA Mediation Rules.

Costs and Fees Appendices (ad valorem)

After examining the methods followed by the regional and international arbitration centers, two approaches were generally adopted by the centers with regard to centers' fees and the neutrals' costs. First, defining the costs and fees based on the amount of time worked, whether hourly or daily. Second, defining the costs and fees based on the sum in dispute (ad valorem), the lump sum method. After thorough studies and analyses of the pros and cons of the two methods, the lump sum method was determined to be more suitable and appropriate for SCCA clients. It is also the same method followed by many regional and international arbitration centers such as the ICC.

The SCCA has developed a costs and fees calculator to assist parties to calculate their estimated arbitration or mediation costs and fees. To use the calculator, please visit our website at: www.sadr.org

Model Clauses

This book contains a number of arbitration and mediation clauses to assist parties wishing to benefit from settling their existing or potential disputes by arbitration or mediation at the SCCA. These clauses were drafted in a simple and concise manner. Parties are encouraged to consider specifying a few details, such as determining the number of arbitrators, place of arbitration and language. Parties wishing to add details into their contracts and acquaint themselves with what they might consider when incorporating

2. These Rules specify the duties and responsibilities of the SCCA, as the Administrator. The Administrator may provide services through any of the SCCA's case management offices or through the facilities of the SCCA or arbitral institutions with which the SCCA has agreements of cooperation. Arbitrations administered under these Rules shall be administered only by the SCCA or by an individual or organization authorized by the SCCA to do so.
3. These Rules shall govern the arbitration except that where any of these Rules is in conflict with a provision of the applicable law to the arbitration from which the parties cannot derogate, that provision shall prevail.

Article (3): Notice and Calculation of Periods of Time

1. A notice, including a notification, communication, proposal or request may be transmitted by any means of communication that provides or allows for a record of its transmission.
2. If an address has been designated by a party specifically for this purpose or authorized by the Tribunal, any notice shall be delivered to that party or its representative(s) at that address, and if so delivered shall be deemed to have been received.
3. In the absence of such designation or authorization, a notice is:
 - (a) Received if it is physically delivered to the addressee; or
 - (b) Deemed to have been received if it is delivered at the place of business, habitual residence or mailing address of the addressee.
4. If, after reasonable efforts, delivery cannot be effected in accordance with paragraphs 2 or 3, a notice is deemed to have been received if it is sent to the addressee's last-known place of business, habitual residence or mailing address by registered letter or any other means that provides a record of delivery or of attempted delivery.

Section I: Introductory Rules

5. A notice shall be deemed to have been received on the day it is delivered in accordance with paragraphs 2, 3 or 4 of this Article or attempted to be delivered in accordance with paragraph 4. A notice transmitted by electronic means is deemed to have been received on the day it is sent, except that a notice of arbitration so transmitted is only deemed to have been received on the day when it reaches the addressee's electronic address.
6. For the purpose of calculating a period of time under these Rules, such period shall begin to run on the day following the day when a notice is made or deemed to have been made in accordance with paragraphs 2, 3 or 4 of this Article. If the last day of such period is an official holiday or a non-business day at the residence or place of business of the addressee, the period is extended until the first business day which follows. Official holidays or non-business days occurring during the running of the period of time are included in calculating the period.

Article (4): Notice of Arbitration

1. The party or parties initiating recourse to arbitration (the "Claimant") shall communicate to the other party or parties (the "Respondent") and to the Administrator a notice of arbitration.
2. Arbitral proceedings shall be deemed to commence on the date on which the Administrator receives the notice of arbitration.
3. The notice of arbitration shall include the following:
 - (a) A demand that the dispute be referred to arbitration;
 - (b) The names and contact details of the parties and, if known, of their representatives;
 - (c) Identification of the arbitration agreement that is invoked;
 - (d) Identification of any contract or other legal instrument out of or in relation to which the dispute arises or, in the absence of such contract or instrument, a brief description of the relevant relationship;

Arbitration Rules

 - (f) An indication of the relief or remedy sought and any amount claimed;
 - (g) A proposal as to the number of arbitrators, language and place of arbitration, if the parties have not previously agreed thereon.
4. The constitution of the Tribunal shall not be hindered by any controversy with respect to the sufficiency of the notice of arbitration, which shall be finally resolved by the Tribunal.
 5. The notice of arbitration shall be accompanied by the appropriate filing fee.

Article (5): Response to the Notice of Arbitration

1. Within 30 days after the commencement of the arbitration, the Respondent shall communicate to the Claimant a response to the notice of arbitration, which shall include:
 - (a) The name and contact details of each Respondent;
 - (b) A response to the information set forth in the notice of arbitration, pursuant to Article 4.3 (e) to (g).
2. The response to the notice of arbitration may also include:
 - (a) Any plea that an arbitral Tribunal to be constituted under these Rules lacks jurisdiction;
 - (b) A brief description of counterclaims or claims for the purpose of a set-off, if any. A counterclaim or set-off shall contain the same information required of a notice of arbitration under Article 4 (3) and shall be accompanied by the appropriate filing fee;
 - (c) A notice of arbitration in accordance with Article 4 in case the Respondent formulates a Claim against a party to the arbitration agreement other than the Claimant.

Section I: Introductory Rules

3. The Tribunal, or the Administrator if the Tribunal has not yet been constituted, may extend any of the time limits established in this Article if it considers such an extension justified.
4. Failure of Respondent to submit an answer shall not preclude the arbitration from proceeding.
5. In arbitrations with multiple parties, Respondent may make claims or assert set-offs against another Respondent and Claimant may make claims or assert set-offs against another Claimant in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

Article (6): Emergency, Provisional or Precautionary Measures

1. A party may apply for emergency relief before the constitution of the Tribunal by submitting a written notice to the Administrator and to all other parties setting forth the nature of the relief sought, the reasons why such relief is required on an emergency basis, and the reasons why the party is entitled to such relief.
2. A request for emergency measures shall be accompanied by the appropriate filing fee. The notice shall be submitted concurrent with or following the submission of a Notice of Arbitration. Such notice may be given by email, or as otherwise permitted by Article 4, and must include a statement certifying that all parties have been notified or an explanation of the steps taken in good faith to notify all parties.
3. Within one business day of receipt of the notice as provided in paragraph 1 of this Article, the Administrator shall appoint a single emergency arbitrator. Prior to accepting appointment, a prospective emergency arbitrator shall, in accordance with Article 13, disclose to the Administrator any circumstances that may give rise to justifiable doubts as to the arbitrator's impartiality or independence. Any challenge to the appointment of the emergency arbitrator must be made within one business day of the communication by the Administrator to the parties of the appointment of the emergency arbitrator and the circumstances disclosed.

Arbitration Rules

4. The emergency arbitrator shall as soon as possible, and in any event within two business days of appointment, establish a schedule for consideration of the application for emergency relief. Such schedule shall provide a reasonable opportunity to all parties to be heard and may provide for proceedings by telephone, video, written submissions, or other suitable means, as alternatives to an in-person hearing. The emergency arbitrator shall have the authority vested in the Tribunal under Article 19, including the authority to rule on his own jurisdiction, and shall resolve any disputes over the applicability of this Article.
5. The emergency arbitrator shall have the power to order or award any interim, provisional or precautionary measures that the emergency arbitrator deems necessary, including injunctive relief and measures for the protection or conservation of property. Any such measure may take the form of an interim Award or of an order. The emergency arbitrator shall give reasons in either case. The emergency arbitrator may modify or vacate the interim Award or order. Any interim Award or order shall have the same effect as an interim measure made pursuant to Article 23 and shall be binding on the parties when rendered. The parties shall undertake to comply with such an interim Award or order without delay.
6. The emergency arbitrator shall have no further power to act after the Tribunal is constituted. Once the Tribunal has been constituted, the Tribunal may reconsider, modify, or vacate the interim Award or order of emergency relief issued by the emergency arbitrator. The emergency arbitrator may not serve as a member of the Tribunal unless the parties agree otherwise.
7. Any interim Award or order of emergency relief may be conditioned on provision of appropriate security by the party seeking such relief.

Section I: Introductory Rules

8. A request for interim measures addressed by a party to a judicial authority shall not be deemed incompatible with this Article or with the agreement to arbitrate or a waiver of the right to arbitrate.
9. The costs associated with applications for emergency relief, including arbitrator's fees, shall be addressed by the emergency arbitrator, subject to the power of the Tribunal to determine finally the allocation of such costs.

Article (7): Joinder

1. A party wishing to join an additional party to the arbitration shall submit to the Administrator a notice of arbitration against the additional party. No additional party may be joined after the appointment of any arbitrator, unless all parties, including the additional party, otherwise agree. The party wishing to join the additional party shall, at that same time, submit the notice of arbitration to the additional party and all other parties. The date on which such notice of arbitration is received by the Administrator shall be deemed to be the date of the commencement of arbitration against the additional party. Any joinder shall be subject to the appointment of arbitrators provisions included in these Rules.
2. The request for joinder shall contain the same information required of a notice of arbitration and shall be accompanied by the appropriate filing fee.
3. The additional party shall submit an answer in accordance with the provisions of Article 5.
4. The additional party may make claims, counterclaims, or assert set-offs against any other party in accordance with the provisions of Article 5.

Article (8): Amendments to the Claim or Defense

During the course of the arbitral proceedings, a party may amend or supplement its Claim or defense, including a counterclaim or a Claim for the purpose of a set-off, unless the Tribunal considers it inappropriate to allow such amendment or supplement having regard to the delay in making it or prejudice to other parties or any other circumstances. However, a Claim or defense, including a counterclaim or a Claim for the purpose of a set-off, may not be amended or supplemented in such a manner that the amended or supplemented Claim or defense falls outside the jurisdiction of the Tribunal. The Tribunal may permit an amendment or supplement subject to an Award of costs and/or the payment of filing fee as determined by the Administrator.

Arbitration Rules

Article (9): Representation and Assistance

Each party may be represented or assisted by persons chosen by it. The names and addresses of such persons must be communicated to all parties and to the Tribunal. Such communication must specify whether the appointment is being made for purposes of representation or assistance. Where a person is to act as a representative of a party, the Tribunal, on its own initiative or at the request of any party, may at any time require proof of authority granted to the representative in such a form as the Tribunal may determine.

Article (10): Administrative Conference

The Administrator may conduct an administrative conference before the Tribunal is constituted to facilitate party discussion and agreement on issues such as arbitrator selection, process efficiencies, and any other administrative matters.

Section II

Composition of the Tribunal

Article (11): Number of Arbitrators

If the parties have not previously agreed on the number of arbitrators, one arbitrator shall be appointed unless the Administrator, after consultation with the parties, determines at its discretion that three arbitrators are appropriate because of the size, complexity, or other circumstances of the case.

Article (12): Appointment of Arbitrators

1. The parties may agree upon any such procedure for appointing arbitrators and shall inform the Administrator as to such procedure. In the absence of parties' agreement as to such procedure, the Administrator may use the SCCA list method as provided in paragraph 6 of this Article.
2. The parties may agree to select arbitrators, with or without the assistance of the Administrator. When such selections are made, the parties shall take into account the arbitrator's availability to serve and shall notify the Administrator so that a notice of appointment can be conveyed to the arbitrators, together with a copy of these Rules.
3. If within 45 days after the commencement of the arbitration, all parties have not agreed on a procedure for appointing the arbitrator(s) or have not agreed on the selection of arbitrator(s), the Administrator shall, at the written request of any party, appoint the arbitrator(s). Where the parties have agreed upon a procedure for selecting the arbitrator(s), but all appointments have not been made within the time limits provided by that procedure, the Administrator shall, at the written request of any party, perform all functions provided for in that procedure that remain to be performed.

4. In making appointments, the Administrator shall, after inviting consultation with the parties, endeavor to appoint suitable arbitrators, taking into account their availability to serve.
5. If there are more than two parties to an arbitration, the Administrator may appoint all arbitrators unless the parties have agreed otherwise no later than 45 days after the commencement of the arbitration.
6. If the parties have not selected an arbitrator(s) and have not agreed on any other method of appointment, the Administrator, at its discretion, may appoint the arbitrator(s) in the following manner using the SCCA list method:
 - (a) The Administrator shall send simultaneously to each party an identical list of names of persons for consideration as arbitrator(s). The parties are encouraged to agree to an arbitrator from the submitted list and shall advise the Administrator of their agreement;
 - (b) If, after receipt of the list, the parties are unable to agree upon an arbitrator(s), each party shall have 15 days from the transmittal date in which to strike names objected to, number the remaining names in order of preference, and return the list to the Administrator. If a party does not return the list within the time specified, all persons therein shall be deemed acceptable. The parties are not required to exchange selection lists;
 - (c) From among the persons who have been approved on the parties' lists, and in accordance with the designated order of mutual preference, the Administrator shall invite an arbitrator to serve;
 - (d) If the parties fail to agree on any of the persons listed, or if the appointment cannot be made from the submitted lists, the Administrator shall have the power to make the appointment without the submission of additional lists;

Section II: Composition of the Tribunal

(e) The Administrator shall designate the presiding arbitrator.

Article (13): Disclosure

1. Arbitrators acting under these Rules shall be impartial and independent and shall act in accordance with the terms of the Notice of Appointment provided by the Administrator.
2. Upon accepting appointment, an arbitrator shall sign the Notice of Appointment provided by the Administrator affirming that the arbitrator is available to serve and is independent and impartial. The arbitrator shall disclose any circumstances that may give rise to justifiable doubts as to the arbitrator's impartiality or independence.
3. If, at any stage during the arbitration, circumstances arise that may give rise to such doubts, an arbitrator or party shall promptly disclose such information to all parties and to the Administrator. Upon receipt of such information from an arbitrator or a party, the Administrator shall communicate it to all parties.
4. Disclosure by an arbitrator or party does not necessarily indicate belief by the arbitrator or party that the disclosed information gives rise to justifiable doubts as to the arbitrator's impartiality or independence.
5. Failure of a party to disclose any circumstances that may give rise to justifiable doubts as to an arbitrator's impartiality or independence within a reasonable period after the party becomes aware of such information constitutes a waiver of the right to challenge an arbitrator based on those circumstances.
6. Parties, arbitrators, and prospective arbitrators shall avoid ex-parte communications regarding the arbitration. If any such communication is made, other parties and arbitrators shall be informed immediately of its substance and reasons for such communications.

Arbitration Rules

Article (14): Challenge of Arbitrators

1. Any arbitrator may be challenged if circumstances exist that give rise to justifiable doubts as to the arbitrator's impartiality or independence.
2. The Administrator, on its own initiative, may, by a final decision, remove an arbitrator for failing to perform his duties.
3. A party that intends to challenge an arbitrator shall send notice of its challenge to the Administrator within 15 days after it has been notified of the appointment of the challenged arbitrator, or within 15 days after the circumstances mentioned in Article 13 became known to that party. The notice shall state in writing the reasons for the challenge.
4. Upon receipt of such challenge, the Administrator shall notify the other party of the challenge and give such party an opportunity to respond. The Administrator will not send notice of the challenge to the any member of the Tribunal but will notify the Tribunal that a challenge has been received, without identifying the party challenging. The Administrator may advise the challenged arbitrator of the challenge and request information from the challenged arbitrator relating to the challenge.
5. When an arbitrator has been challenged by a party, all parties may agree to the challenge. The arbitrator may also, after the challenge, withdraw from his office. In neither case does this imply acceptance of the validity of the grounds for the challenge.
6. If all parties do not agree to the challenge or the challenged arbitrator does not withdraw, the Administrator in its sole discretion shall make the decision on the challenge.

Article (15): Replacement of an Arbitrator

If an arbitrator resigns, is incapable of performing his duties, or is removed for any reason and the office becomes vacant, a substitute arbitrator shall be appointed pursuant to the provisions of Article 12.

Section II: Composition of the Tribunal

Article (16): Exclusion of Liability

The members of the Tribunal, the emergency arbitrator, the Administrator and the SCCA board shall not be liable to any party for any act or omission in connection with any arbitration under these Rules, except to the extent that such a limitation of liability is prohibited by applicable law. The parties agree that no arbitrator nor the Administrator and the SCCA board shall be under any obligation to make any statement about the arbitration, and no party shall seek to make any of these persons a party or witness in any judicial or other proceeding related to the arbitration.

Section III

Arbitral Proceedings

Article (17): Place of Arbitration

1. If the parties do not agree on the place of arbitration by a date established by the Administrator, the Administrator may initially determine the place of arbitration subject to a final determination to be made by the Tribunal.
2. A final determination of the place of arbitration shall be presented by the Tribunal having regard to the circumstances of the case and the convenience of the place for the parties.
3. The Tribunal may meet at any location it considers appropriate for deliberations, to preview the dispute, or to examine or review the documents. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the Tribunal may also meet at any location it considers appropriate for any other purpose, including hearings, witnesses' examination, experts and parties.
4. The Award shall be deemed to have been made at the place of arbitration.

Article (18): Arbitration Language

1. If the parties do not agree on the language(s) of arbitration by a date established by the Administrator, the Administrator may initially determine the language(s) of the arbitration subject to a final determination made by the Tribunal. The Administrator shall be guided by the language(s) of the arbitration agreement.
2. The Tribunal shall, promptly after its appointment, make a final determination regarding the language(s) to be used in the proceedings.

Arbitration Rules

3. The Tribunal may order that any documents annexed to the statement of Claim or statement of defense, and any supplementary documents or exhibits submitted in the course of the proceedings, delivered in their original language, shall be accompanied by a translation into the language(s) agreed upon by the parties or determined by the Tribunal. In the case of multiple languages, the Tribunal may confine the translation to some of them.

Article (19): Arbitral Jurisdiction

1. Arbitration agreement shall be considered independent from the contract in dispute. Thus if the contract is voided or terminated for any reason, the arbitration shall continue regardless. The Tribunal shall have jurisdiction to decide on pleadings relating to its competency.
2. The Tribunal shall have the power to rule on its own jurisdiction, including any objections with respect to the existence, scope, or validity of the arbitration agreement(s), or with respect to whether all of the claims, counterclaims, and set-offs made in the arbitration may be determined in a single arbitration.
3. The Tribunal shall have the power to determine the existence or validity of a contract of which an arbitration clause forms a part. Such an arbitration clause shall be treated as an agreement independent of the other terms of the contract. A decision by the Tribunal that the contract is null and void shall not for that reason alone render invalid the arbitration clause.
4. A party must object to the jurisdiction of the Tribunal or to arbitral jurisdiction respecting the admissibility of a claim, counterclaim, or set-off no later than the filing of the answer, as provided in Article 5 of these Rules, to the claim, counterclaim, or set-off that gives rise to the objection. The Tribunal may extend such time limit and may rule on any objection under this Article as a preliminary matter or as part of the final Award on the merits.
5. The Tribunal may continue the arbitral proceedings and make an Award, notwithstanding any pending challenge to its jurisdiction before a court.

Section III: Arbitral Proceedings

6. Issues regarding arbitral jurisdiction raised prior to the constitution of the Tribunal shall not preclude the Administrator from proceeding with the constitution of the Tribunal and shall be referred to the Tribunal for determination once constituted.

Article (20): Conduct of Proceedings

1. Subject to these Rules, the Tribunal may conduct the arbitration in whatever manner it considers appropriate, provided that the parties are treated with equality and that each party has the right to be heard and is given a fair opportunity to present its case.
2. The Tribunal shall conduct the proceedings with a view to expediting the resolution of the dispute. The Tribunal may, promptly after being constituted, conduct a preparatory conference with the parties for the purpose of organizing, scheduling, and agreeing to procedures, including the setting of deadlines for any submissions by the parties. In establishing procedures for the case, the Tribunal and the parties may consider how technology, including electronic communications could be used.
3. The Tribunal may decide preliminary issues, bifurcate proceedings, direct the order of proof, exclude cumulative or irrelevant testimony or other evidence, and direct the parties to focus their presentations on issues whose resolution could dispose of all or part of the case.
4. At any time during the proceedings, the Tribunal may order the parties to produce documents, exhibits, or other evidence it deems necessary or appropriate. Unless the parties agree otherwise in writing, the Tribunal shall apply Article 21.
5. Documents or information submitted to the Tribunal by one party shall at the same time be transmitted by that party to all parties and, unless instructed otherwise by the Administrator, to the Administrator.

Arbitration Rules

6. The Tribunal shall determine the admissibility, relevance, materiality, and weight of the evidence.
7. The parties shall make every effort to avoid unnecessary delay and expense in the arbitration. The Tribunal may allocate costs, draw adverse inferences, and take such additional steps as are necessary to protect the efficiency and integrity of the arbitration.

Article (21): Exchange of Information

1. The Tribunal shall manage the exchange of information between the parties with a view to maintaining efficiency and economy. The Tribunal and the parties should endeavor to avoid unnecessary delay and expense while at the same time avoiding surprise, assuring equality of treatment, and safeguarding each party's opportunity to present its claims and defenses fairly.
2. The parties shall exchange all documents upon which each intends to rely on a schedule set by the Tribunal.
3. When documents to be exchanged are maintained in electronic form, the party in possession of such documents may make them available in the form most convenient and economical for it (which may be paper copies), unless the Tribunal determines, on application, that there is a compelling need for access to the documents in a different form. Requests for documents maintained in electronic form should be narrowly focused and structured to make searching for them as economical as possible. The Tribunal may direct testing or other means of focusing and limiting any search.
4. The Tribunal may, on application, require a party to permit inspection on reasonable notice of relevant premises or objects.

Section III: Arbitral Proceedings

5. In the event a party fails to comply with an order for information exchange, the Tribunal may draw adverse inferences and may take such failure into account in allocating costs.

Article (22): Privilege

The Tribunal shall take into account applicable principles of privilege, such as those involving the confidentiality of communications between a lawyer and client. When the parties, their counsel, or their documents would be subject under applicable law to different rules, the Tribunal should, to the extent possible, apply the same rule to all parties, giving preference to the rule that provides the highest level of protection.

Article (23): Interim, Provisional, Precautionary or other Measures

 - (b) Take action that would prevent, or refrain from taking action that is likely to cause, (i) current or imminent harm or, (ii) prejudice to the arbitral process itself;
 - (c) Provide a means of preserving assets out of which a subsequent Award may be satisfied; or
 - (d) Preserve evidence that may be relevant and material to the resolution of the dispute.

Arbitration Rules

3. The party requesting an interim measure under paragraphs 2 (a) to (c) shall satisfy the Tribunal that:
 - (a) Harm not adequately reparable by an Award of damages is likely to result if the measure is not ordered, and such harm substantially outweighs the harm that is likely to result to the party against whom the measure is directed if the measure is granted; and
 - (b) There is a reasonable possibility that the requesting party will succeed on the merits of the claim. The determination on this possibility shall not affect the discretion of the Tribunal in making any subsequent determination.
4. The Tribunal may modify, suspend or terminate an interim measure it has granted, upon application of any party or, in exceptional circumstances and upon prior notice to the parties, on the Tribunal's own initiative.
5. Such interim measures may take the form of an interim order, giving reasons, or Award, and the Tribunal may require security for the costs of such measures.
6. A request for interim measures addressed by a party to a judicial authority shall not be deemed incompatible with the agreement to arbitrate or a waiver of the right to arbitrate.
7. The Tribunal may in its discretion allocate costs associated with applications for interim relief in any interim order or Award or in the final Award.
8. An application for emergency relief prior to the constitution of the Tribunal may be made as provided for in Article 6.

The Tribunal may require any witness to appear at a hearing. If a witness whose appearance has been requested fails to appear without valid excuse as determined by the Tribunal, the Tribunal may disregard any written statement by that witness.
5. The Tribunal may direct that witnesses be examined through means that do not require their physical presence.
6. Hearings are private unless the parties agree otherwise or the law provides to the contrary.

The Tribunal shall decide promptly what, if any, action to take.

3. The parties shall give the expert any relevant information or produce for his inspection any relevant documents or goods that he may require of them. Any dispute between a party and such expert as to the relevance of the required information or production shall be referred to the Tribunal for decision.

Where required by law, the SCCA shall collect withholding tax and remit such tax to the appropriate tax authority.

Article (7): Award Interpretation and Correction Fee

 A non-refundable Registration Fee of SAR 5,000 is payable in full by the claimant when a claim is filed and will be credited towards the claimant's share of the SCCA Administrative Fees.

 The amounts calculated using this formula represent the average amount in arbitral tribunal fees. The SCCA may fix advance deposit that is up to 30% higher or lower than the average amount. The SCCA will ultimately determine arbitral tribunal fees at the end of the case. The arbitral tribunal fees for a panel of three arbitrators is three times the amount calculated for sole arbitrator. The payout of the minimum amount in arbitral tribunal fees is only guaranteed if a case ends in a final award. Amounts paid to the Arbitral Tribunal do not include any possible value added tax (VAT) or other taxes or charges and imposes applicable to the arbitral tribunal fees.

1. The Expedited Procedure provisions provided for in this Appendix supplement the SCCA Arbitration Rules. By agreeing to arbitration under SCCA Rules, the parties agree that the Expedited Procedure provisions shall apply.
2. The Expedited Procedure provisions set forth in this Appendix shall apply if either of the following criteria is satisfied:
 - (a) The amount in dispute does not exceed SAR 4,000,000 or an equivalent amount, exclusive of the costs of arbitration, representing the aggregate of the claims, counterclaims and cross-claims;
 - (b) The parties so agree.
3. The Expedited Procedure provisions shall not apply if:
 - (a) The arbitration agreement under the Rules was concluded before the date on which the Expedited Procedure Appendix came into force, unless the parties agree to opt into the Expedited Procedure provisions;
 - (b) The parties have agreed to opt out of the Expedited Procedure provisions.
4. The Administrator may, at any time during the arbitral proceedings, on its own initiative or upon the request of a party and after consultation with the Tribunal and the parties, decide that the Expedited Procedure provisions shall no longer apply to the case. In such case, the Tribunal shall remain in place unless the Administrator considers that it is appropriate to replace or reconstitute the Tribunal.

Arbitration Rules

Article (2): Notice of Arbitration and Response

2. In the notice of arbitration and the response, the parties shall present detailed submissions on the facts, claims, counterclaims, cross-claims, set-offs and defenses, together with all of the evidence then available on which such party intends to rely.
3. The Administrator may abbreviate the time limit for response provided for in Article 5 of the Rules.

Arbitration Rules
