Chartered Institute of Arbitrators Accelerated Route to Fellowship (ARF)

A fast-track route towards Fellowship in the Chartered Institute through the International Pathway.

This course includes both candidate assessment and an award writing examination (CI Arb Module 4). It assesses whether the candidate has sufficient knowledge required to apply the principles and procedure of international arbitration based on the UNCITRAL Model Law and UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules.

Upon successful completion of this course, an applicant will have completed all the course requirements for Institute Fellowship.

ARF DIRECTORS

Richard F. Ziegler, FCI Arb; Partner, Jenner & Block LLP. SEE BIO

Course Fee: US $ 2,250.00

(includes course materials, exam charges, breakfasts, lunches on Mon 5/20 and Tue 5/21)

DISCOUNT

If payment is received on or before April 12, 2019, US$ 1,800 (20% Discount)

Before registering for the ARF or both courses, we STRONGLY ADVISE you to write to education@ciarbny.org briefly describing your background and experience in international arbitration. Attendees who do not possess sufficient knowledge or experience in international arbitration have considerable difficulty in passing the award writing exam given at the end of the ARF. An ARF director will review the international arbitration experience you provide and will respond with a recommendation as to whether you are an appropriate candidate for the ARF at this time.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Cancellation by Registrants

Registration will be confirmed on receipt of payment of the applicable fee. If a registrant is unable to attend, another person may be substituted with a minimum of one week prior written notice at no additional cost.

Any registrant who cancels his/her registration for either course will be entitled to a refund based on the following schedule:

Request received on or before March 19, 2019 90% of the registration fee
Request received from Mar. 12, 2019 to Apr. 12, 2019 . 50% of the registration fee
Request received after April 13, 2019 No Refund

Course Changes or Cancellation

The course directors reserve the right, in their sole discretion, to make changes to the faculty, speakers, content and order of presentation of the program, or to cancel the course should circumstances so indicate.

In the event of cancellation of any course, a full refund of the registration fee paid will be made to registrants who shall remain solely responsible for any expenses incurred or other consequences related to their planning to attend the course.

Discounts

Discounts are not cumulative; i.e., only one discount may be applied per registrant.

The Two-Course Package discount and the discount for Full-Time Law Professors or Full-Time US Federal or State Employees are not conditioned on early registration.

CLE FINANCIAL AID POLICY

Full-time law students and New York-admitted attorneys seeking a hardship scholarship should (a) register on-line using the registration link provided above or using a registration form available upon request,* and (b) separately complete their registration by submitting a scholarship request, no later than April 12, 2019, to education@ciarbny.org. Requests should detail in a few sentences the basis of the applicant's need and the background supporting his or her interest. The course directors may request additional information to complete the scholarship request. Please understand that without a completed scholarship request, the applicant may be notified that the scholarship registration has been canceled and the request denied. All completed requests will be considered.

Attendees are responsible to arrange and pay for their own travel, lodging and related expenses, and for all meals not specified in this brochure.

* If you are unable to complete registration and payment on-line, please write to treasurer@ciarbny.org to request registration by e-mail or fax and payment by wire transfer or by bank check to be delivered by mail or courier.
